

PHOENIX YOUTH SYMPHONY'S 60th ANNUAL YOUNG MUSICIANS COMPETITION CONCERTO COMPETITION RULES AND REGULATIONS

DATE

Saturday, January 4, 2020

LOCATION

Mesa Community College, Mesa, Arizona

ELIGIBILITY

The Competition is open to all nonprofessional music students who reside in and attend school in the state of Arizona and who are in grades 6 - 12 on the dates of competition. The music student must also be recommended by his/her private teacher, which is confirmed by his/her signature on the application. You may submit an application and pay online by visiting our website at www.phoenixyouthsymphony.org. For questions, contact Diane Bender (deeindb@gmail.com)

APPLICATION and FEE DEADLINE

The $75 non-refundable fee for Senior Division and $50 non-refundable fee for Junior Division and application must be postmarked by Wednesday, October 30, 2019. Applications postmarked after October 30th will require a $25.00 late fee. Applications postmarked after November 6, 2019 will NOT be accepted. Your application WILL NOT be processed unless the application is complete. Incomplete or illegible applications will be returned for completion and resubmitted applications must follow above deadlines. Your scheduled performance time will be emailed prior to December 31, 2019.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Each contestant shall be required to perform FROM MEMORY one movement of a standard concerto, or a composition for solo instrument and orchestra.
2. Contestants in the Junior Division may select from the Repertoire List. There is an * beside repertoire recommended for Junior Contestants. Contestants may select a concerto or solo with available orchestral accompaniment not on the list, but only on recommendation of his/her private teacher and only with prior approval by the Competition Director. See #4.
3. The contestants in the Senior Division may select from those without an * in the Repertoire List. Contestants may select a concerto or a solo with available orchestral accompaniment not on the list, only on recommendation of his/her private teacher and with prior approval by the Competition Director. See #4. Senior Contestants have an option to compete in the Scholarship Auditions on Sunday, but must designate their desire to do so at the time of application.
4. To request a concerto not on the repertoire list: To ensure availability, it is very important that the Competition Director, Diane Bender (deeindb@gmail.com), be notified immediately for concerto approval. Deadline to submit a request is by midnight October 16, 2019.
5. No student shall perform a composition which he/she performed in any previous Phoenix Youth Symphony Young Musicians Competition.
6. Each contestant must provide his/her own accompanist. An accompanist is required for the competition, except for percussionist pieces that do not have an accompanist part. If your accompanist can only play at certain times, you will need to advise us of the time restrictions at the time of application submission. We may or may not be able to accommodate your accompanist's request. You must notify us if there is a change of accompanist. Note: Each accompanist will be limited to 18 performances, so only the first 18 complete and legible applications received listing that accompanist will be accepted. Additional applications for that accompanist will be returned and will need to be resubmitted before the deadline with a different accompanist listed. Submit your applications early to ensure that you get the accompanist you want. NOTE: Accompanists, who have two or more performances, may not be able to practice with contestants during their practice time.
7. Maximum playing time will be ten minutes and must include the cadenza. Cuts may be necessary and this should be done at the discretion of the contestant's teacher. Contestants will be stopped at 10 minutes and 30 seconds, without exception. Contestants who play longer than 10 minutes and 30 seconds may be disqualified. Adjust your time to 10 minutes if you go onto the Scholarship Auditions.
8. No changes can be made to repertoire after November 6, 2019. Any change(s) must be reported to Diane Bender (deeindb@gmail.com) prior to midnight November 6, 2019.
9. Piano contestants will be allowed to play one scale only on the competition piano prior to playing the composition selection. Percussion contestants will be allowed to check their equipment prior to playing their piece.
10. Contestants will be allowed 10 minutes in a practice room immediately before the contestant's scheduled performance time, with the exception that brass and woodwind contestants will be allowed 25 minutes.
11. The contestant must provide three copies of the solo to be performed for the judges' use. The copies must not contain any marks identifying the contestant or teacher. The copies must have all measures numbered and any cuts clearly marked. All copies left will be destroyed after the competition.

AWARDS CONVOCATION

Certificates of Merit will be presented to all junior and senior contestants. All Junior and Senior Division winners will be announced and all awards presented at the end of each category/division (in the lobby at approximately one hour after the last competitor finishes). THE DECISION OF THE JUDGES WILL BE FINAL! Note: The judges reserve the right not to select a winner in any category per their discretion.

JUNIOR DIVISION - GRADES 6 THROUGH 8

The first place winner in each category (upper strings, lower strings, woodwinds, brass/percussion, and piano/harp) will receive a $500 cash prize.

SENIOR DIVISION - GRADES 9 THROUGH 12

The winners of each category (upper strings, lower strings, woodwinds, brass/percussion, and piano/harp) will be presented an award and will be eligible to enter the Scholarship Auditions on Sunday IF they have completed both applications at the time of submission. For additional information, please see Scholarship Auditions Rules and Regulations. The Phoenix Youth Symphony requires first place winners to perform at the Competition Winners Luncheon on Tuesday, February 11, 2020 - check your availability!
